DOESN'T KNOW WHO SHOT HIM

Mayor Gaynor Indifferent To Assailant's Identity

Expect Crisis In Patient's Condition Today—Make Statement That Operation For Removal Of Bullet Will Not Be Undertaken For Some Time—Bursting Of Artery Is Contingency Most To Be Feared Within The Next Ten Days

New York, Aug. 11.—Great improvement in the condition of Mayor Gaynor, who was shot in the neck by James J. Gallagher on the deck of the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, is noted by the physicians who are in attendance on him in St. Mary's hospital, Hoboken, N. J. So favorable is his case that the surgeons have decided not to attempt an operation for the removal of the split bullet that has lodged in the mayor's neck.

Such was the condition of Mayor Gaynor that after a consultation the three New York specialists who had been in continuous attendance at the bedside, together with the hospital staff of surgeons and other physicians from outside the institution, went back to New York, leaving the mayor in the care of only two watchers. They did not return to the hospital until eight hours later.

Through Robert Adamson, the mayor's secretary, the specialists gave to the newspaper men an unofficial view of the present status of Mayor Gaynor's case and of the existing plan of procedure which has been adopted by the physicians, predicated as it is upon the continued favorable progress of the patient.

"We have ascertained that the bullet's fragments do not lie among any of the major vessels," said the physicians' statement. "It is not necessary to get it out now while the wound is sore, because it would be a useless irritation and it would tax the mayor's strength unnecessarily. Unless complications arise the removal of the bullet will not be attempted for the present."

Danger to Guard Against.

The physicians also stated frankly just what dangers still had to be guarded against. There are two contingencies which might bring about a serious relapse in the mayor's condition. The first of these is septicaemia due to infection of the wound; if no trace of this complication appears by this evening the physicians may reasonably dismiss the fear of blood poisoning. The second factor that would weigh heavily against the mayor's chances of recovery, if it should appear, is the weakening and breaking of an artery with the consequent hemorrhage. There is a possibility that one or the other sections of the bullet might have grazed an artery, tearing the wall slightly, but enough to cause a break under any strain of physical effort or through the sloughing off of the blood clot over the abrasure. This rupture of an artery might occur at any time during the next 10 days or two weeks, and it would come without a minute's warning.

Under these circumstances it was generally conceded by all of the physicians attending the mayor that today must be somewhat in the nature of a crisis. If it passes without any indications of irritation in the wound the doctors will believe that they have Mayor Gaynor fairly on the road to recovery.

A startling conjunction of facts has come about. While Street Commissioner Edwards, Corporation Counsel Watson and John Purroy Mitchell, the acting mayor of New York, were in consultation with Assistant Prosecutor J. W. McCarthy of Hudson county, concerning the steps which are to be taken in bringing the mayor's assailant to a speedy test of justice, word came from the sick room that of all whose interest has been aroused by the attempted assassination, the people in America and beyond the seas, Mayor Gaynor was the only one who does not know that James J. Gallagher was the man who fired the shot on board the North German Lloyd steamer.

Sees No Newspapers.

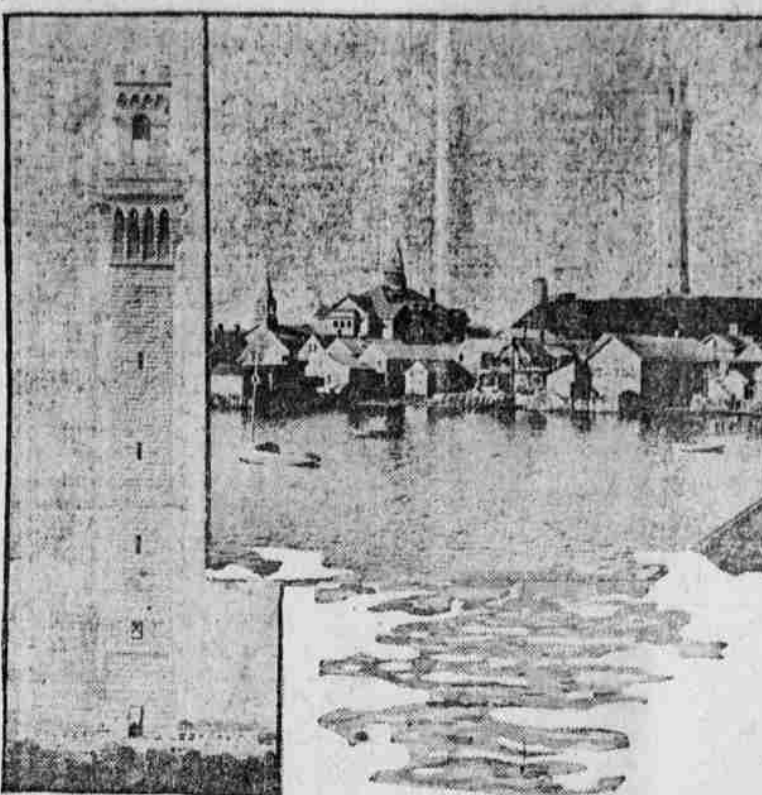

Those who came from the sick room said that, aside from the mayor's first query, "Who did this?" which was voiced immediately after the shooting while he was being led to his stateroom on the Kaiser Wilhelm, the mayor has shown absolutely no curiosity on the subject. He has not asked either of his physicians, of his wife or Secretary Adamson the name of the man who attempted to assassinate him, nor has he seen any newspapers which carry the name of Gallagher in large type on their pages. In the absence of any desire on the part of Mayor Gaynor to learn this fact, nobody has told him.

As for Gallagher, reflection in the Hudson county jail seems to have tempered his sullen defiance; for he retracted the statement he had made immediately after the shooting in which he gloried and justified his deed. He told the assistant prosecutor of Hudson county and his lawyers who visited him in his cell that he was sorry he had shot Mayor Gaynor and that he hoped the mayor's life would be spared. But his obstinacy led him to qualify even this exhibition of contrition.

"I am sorry I shot Gaynor, but I feel no remorse," said Gallagher. "I had to do it as a lesson to the country—to teach high officials to regard the rights of their subordinates."

One of the first persons admitted to the wounded man's room was Thomas L. Gaynor, Mayor Gaynor's older brother, from Springfield, O. Thomas Gaynor hurried to the hospital in a taxicab just as he was, all travel-stained. He had received word of the assault upon the mayor at his home in Springfield, O., and he had caught the first train for the east.

Pilgrims' Memory Honored By Second Great Monument

The second monument to mark the two great events in the pilgrims' early history is the one on Town hill at Provincetown, Mass. The other tribute to the pioneers is the Standish monument at Duxbury. Former President Roosevelt assisted in the laying of the cornerstone more than two years ago, and President Taft dedicated the beautiful tower Aug. 5. This monument commemorates the signing of the historical compact of government.

SAYS RICE KILLED BY RUSSIAN GUN

Cleveland Police Go Back to Revenge Theory.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 11.—That William L. Rice, millionaire attorney, was slain by a personal enemy and not by highwaymen, was the testimony adduced at the inquest of the coroner, George H. Freeman, expert in charge of the gun and ammunition department of the W. B. Ingham Hardware company, examined the bullet that caused Rice's death and afterwards declared the revolver with which the millionaire was murdered to have been a Russian model, 44-caliber, such as is used most exclusively in gallery shooting. The cartridges used in revolvers of this kind discharge themselves with a muffled sound, and yet are as deadly as others containing many times as much powder.

That a Russian model revolver was used to kill Rice firmly convinces the authorities that revenge was the motive for the slaying. They believe that no highwayman would use such a weapon nor would chicken thieves arm themselves with a gun of this sort. They claim that such a revolver would be used by an enemy who wanted to make sure that the bullets would produce fatal results.

WHITE AVIATES IRISH SEA

Englishman Lands on Golf Links After 50-Mile Air Spin.

Blackpool, England, Aug. 11.—Flying for 50 miles over the Irish sea and above the rugged coast of England, Graham White traveled from here to Rhoo bay, Denbighshire, and alighted easily on the golf links near Colwyn. Robert Lorraine, who is well known as an actor in America as well as in England, flew by biplane to Fleetwood, where he picked up dispatches. After landing at Barrow he returned to Blackpool.

GARFIELD IS MUM ON OHIO SITUATION

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 11.—Gifford Pinchot, fresh from his western trip, and James R. Garfield were callers at Sagamore Hill. Somebody asked Mr. Pinchot what they thought of the Taft administration out in California. The former forester looked surprised, glanced at Mr. Garfield and started to walk away. He turned suddenly, as though an idea had struck him. "Well, gentlemen," was his answer, "what do you think of the weather?"

It was pouring rain and there were flashes of lightning in the western sky. If Mr. Pinchot meant anything by the comparison, he secured the desired effect.

COMMITTS SUICIDE

Cleveland, O., Aug. 11.—Earl Springer, 20, committed suicide by shooting in W. R. White's cafe, Rocky River. The young man walked into the cafe and asked the bartender for a piece of paper. He then quickly wrote a note of farewell to his parents, asking them to forgive him for the rash act that was about to follow. Springer then pulled a revolver from his pocket and deliberately shot himself dead.

SWALLOWED HER TEETH

Columbus, O., Aug. 11.—Mrs. Bridget Hynes of Urbana, who was admitted to the state hospital less than a week ago, died suddenly from strangulation caused by swallowing her false teeth. She was eating breakfast when in some manner the plate, on which there were two teeth on either side, became loosened and slipped down her throat.

POSTOFFICE ROBBED

Cambridge, O., Aug. 11.—A party of yeggmen entered the postoffice at Byesville, five miles south of here, blew open the safe and stole $300. They escaped without even arousing the residents of that village.

AVIATOR DROPS ON SPECTATORS

Brookins Has Serious Mishap at Asbury Park.

YOUNG BOY FATALLY INJURED

Aviator Badly Bruised by 50-Foot Fall and Is Taken From Wreckage in Unconscious Condition—Seven Persons on Aviation Field Hurt When Wright Aeroplane Plunges Downward to Avoid Collision With Camera Men.

Asbury Park, N. J., Aug. 11.—During the first hour of the opening of the 10-day aviation meet here, Walter Brookins, the youthful pupil of the Wright brothers, who on July 9 at Atlantic City climbed to the record height of 6,275 feet and then coasted safely to earth with his power shut off, crashed into a crowd of spectators from a height of 50 feet.

Seven persons besides Brookins were injured. One 14-year-old boy, named George Burnett, of Spring Lake, was crushed beneath the framework of the lower part of the main planes of the machine and had his skull fractured and his hip broken. He was removed to the Long Branch hospital. The boy probably will die.

When Brookins was found beneath the tangle of the torn plane fabric and splintered framework and wires, he lay on the sod of the aviation field with his face in a pool of blood and his right hand still grasping the steering lever. He was thought to be dead as he was dragged out of the wreck by Chief of Police Sexton and Private Henry Krushchka of the Third Infantry, New Jersey National Guard. While being carried into the hospital, only a few feet away, however, the aviator began to groan, and as Dr. Taylor of the Asbury Park free dispensary leaned over him in the hospital tent Brookins asked weakly, "How did it happen?"

Nose Is Broken.

The doctors say that a superficial examination showed that Brookins has a broken nose, a severely lacerated head and face, his eyes are closed, and he has general bruises about the body. The doctors do not expect fatal results from his fall.

Brookins said later that his fall was due to efforts he was making while descending to avoid a crowd of camera men and other spectators grouped on the aviation field a few feet in front of the north end of the uncovered grandstand. The wind caught the lower edge of the highest edge of the planes, and the machine momentarily stood on edge in midair and then headed straight downward and crumpled into a cracking heap of wreckage.

Shrieks of terror arose from the onlookers, men and women crouched and, with upraised hands, seemed to try to ward off the weight bearing toward them.

INDICT FORTY FOR LYNCHING

Newark Grand Jury Holds 15 For First Degree Murder

Assistant Attorney General Miller Says That Final Adjournment Will Not Be Taken Until Last Member Of Mob That Killed Carl Etherington Has Been Brought To Bar Of Justice—Some May Be Tried In Neighboring Counties

Newark, O., Aug. 11.—After the grand jury that has been considering the lynching of Carl M. Etherington had returned 40 indictments, Assistant Attorney General Miller left for his home in Columbus to take a short respite from his arduous task. He will be back for the reopening of the jury's sessions Aug. 23, and made the assertion that "we are going to get every other guilty man indicted."

Of the 40 indictments, 15 are for first degree murder, which in Ohio means the electric chair, should any of the 15 be convicted. The state and Licking county officials are going to push the cases to trial as soon as possible, and if those indicted insist on separate trials, it is likely that courts of counties adjoining Licking will be called upon to assist.

Louis Bolton Indicted.

Among those indicted on the murder charge is Louis Bolton, a saloon keeper and political power in Newark for years. He is alleged to have slipped the noose over the detective's head. After the lynching he fled from Newark and was caught two weeks ago, after pursuit through half a dozen states.

Others indicted for murder are: Edward Schoeller, Weldon Denny, Montell Watha, Frank (Flecker) Froef, Edward Woolard, Levi Valentine, Clarence Timmons, William McKinley, William Feurriegal, W. E.

mer Seary, Robert Cleveland, Edgar Owens, Joe Bush and Quincy Sutley. Six men were indicted on a charge of rioting, two for assault and battery and two for perjury in connection with the lynching probe.

REVENUE FALLS OFF

Columbus, O., Aug. 11.—Collections from the saloons of Ohio net the state just $1,037,220.35, as shown by the July settlement, just completed by State Treasurer Creamer. This is a slight falling off from the July collections of a year ago. Cuyahoga county leads with $287,278.20, and Hamilton comes next with $233,777.29. Lucas county contributes $100,127.75, as against only $72,156.98.

Catholic Total Abstinence Society. Boston, Aug. 11.—The National Catholic Total Abstinence union opened its convention here in historic Faneuil hall. Previously the delegates attended a solemn high mass in the cathedral of the Holy Cross, celebrated by Monsignor Falconi.

ITALIAN TROOPS SHOOT AND KILL RIOTERS

Rome, Aug. 11.—Four rioters were killed and more than 100 wounded by being fired on by troops at Bari, which is 69 miles northwest of Brindisi. A meeting had been called to protest against the high prices of food and a great crowd assembled. Revolutionary speeches were made, and when the officers ordered the mob to disperse, it savagely attacked the carabinieri who had been sent to preserve order. The troops fired twice, when the rioters scattered, leaving the dead and wounded behind.

Race Program Postponed.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 11.—Rain in torrents caused the postponement until today of the Grand Circuit card at North Randall. The card is the best of the week. Dudie Archdale was heavily backed in $150 pools at $100 and Billy Burke at $25.

GRIEF SHORT LIVED

Baroness Vaughn Will Soon Wed Frenchman Without Profession.

Paris, Aug. 11.—While still greatly regretting the loss of King Leopold of the Belgians, Baroness Vaughn is soon to wed Ammanuel Durier, a French citizen, who so far as known is without any profession. The bans have been published at Arronville, near the historic castle of Balincourt. The baroness has a large fortune left her by Leopold and she fears that the legion of lawyers who have been fighting her in the courts will eventually swallow not only the interest but the principal of her estate.

Printers Propose Alliance.

Minneapolis, Aug. 11.—Promising to overshadow all other business of the fifty-sixth convention of the International Typographical union, now in session in Minneapolis, is the report of the joint conference board of printing trades international officers submitted today. All delegates predict that this will be the most momentous question to be decided by the convention, and it may be referred to a referendum vote.
